Sir,

Sub: Grant of leave.

With reference to your letter No.970/C.B. dated 24th May 1949 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that I proceeded on leave in April 1949 on 16-4-49 but on 20-4-49 I was called to Bangalore urgently to see the Dewan. I therefore returned from Ooty on 20-4-49 and attended to my official work on the 21st april as well. I availed of the leave again from the 22nd April and continued to be on leave till 28-4-49 having returned from Ooty on - 27-4-49 in the evening.

During the monthxx of May 1949 I proceeded on leave on the 15th instant (please vide my letter No.M.X.1777 dated the 13th instant) and resumed my official duties on the 24th instant.

I ~~the~~ request therefore casual leave for 3 days viz., 16th, 18th and 19th of April with permission to avail of the Sunday on the 17th April 1949, and casual leave for 4 days viz., 22nd, 25th and 26th & 27th of April 1949 with permission to avail of the intervening holidays on the 23rd and 24th of April 1949, as well as casual leave for 6 days from 16th to 23rd instant inclusive with permission to avail of the preceding Sunday i.e., 15th instant and two holidays intervening i.e., 21st and 22nd May 1949, may kindly be sanctioned.
